Toshiyuki Someya, Jun Hashimoto

To commemorate 40 years of an iconic SF animation Galaxy Express 999 by Leiji Matsumoto, a special live-action drama has been produced. It was originally shot and broadcasted live with Japan's state-of-the-art VFX.

Featuring actress Chiaki Kuriyama (of Quentin Tarantino's "Kill Bill" fame) playing the part of main character Maetel.

VFX has been produced by teams of film "Parasyte (寄生獣)" and "Shin Godzilla".

[Synopsis]

It is set in a high-tech future in which humans have learned how to transfer their minds and emotions with perfect fidelity into mechanical bodies, thus achieving practical immortality. However, those who cannot afford the mechanical bodies are discriminated and persecuted by mechanical people.

Tetsuro Hoshino desperately wants an indestructible machine body, giving him the ability to live forever and have the freedom that the unmechanized don't have. While machine bodies are impossibly expensive, they are supposedly given away for free in the Andromeda galaxy, the end of the line for the Galaxy Express 999, a space train that only comes to Earth once a year.

Tetsuro encounters Maetel who is a dead ringer to his mother, who was killed by Count Mecha and gang of human hunters. Maetel offers him an unlimited use pass for the 999 if he will be her traveling companion. They continue their travel through space, in search of mechanical bodies. However, Tetsuro does not know that Maetel has hidden agenda...
